Will Remain With the Climbers Two Final Contests With Naplanders.

By "SENATOR."

CLEVELAND, May 21.-Connie Mack has informed Griff that but one game will be carded at Shibe Park on Saturday, the two double-headers coming on Monday and Tuesday. This proves once more than league rules amount to nothing among friends.

W. H. Rapley, treasurer of the Griffmen, arrived here this morning, and will stay to see the last two games with the Naplanders.

CLEVELAND, May 21 .- Aftter troting out seventeen of his big and brawny athletes to work the downfall of the Griffmen, only to see them fall, Joe Birmingham, the mana-Ber who invented the shakeless style of ger who invented the shakeless style of playing big league ball, found just one more sink sitting on the bench. This last one had yet to see his name in the box score. The Naplanders were behind to the tune of 9 to 8, two were down in the last of the ninth, and the bags were crowded. And there sat Bill Carisch, backstop, saying not a single little thing.

Carish to Rescue.

Ali around the field the frenzied fans, emembering all they had ever read bout ninth inning railies and seeing and Larry Lajoie in a last dying effor to avert the inevitable, roared and screamed and begged and howled and whistled and stamped their feet.

"Think you can do it?" whispered Manager Joe Birmingham into the ear of the big backstop.

"Sure thing. Try me," was the ready reply

"Go on up there and knock the cover off the pill," was the last order of General Birmingham.
"Come over, Howard." shouted the foxy Clark Griffith to his young left fielder. And right there came the margin that let the think hannen. Howard.

Carisch had been the only one not to get into the game. This was his chance and he took it. Curtains, and no dinner for Old Fox Griffith.

Shanks Learns Lesson.

But a ball game is never over until the last man is out. Consequently to Bill Carisch goes the inidvidual glory and the victory. To Hank Shanks goes the knowledge that Old Fox Griffith knows more than he does. To the whole team of Griffmen it is once more rammed home that they must keep on piaying every minute if they are to cop that bunting. Here is the dope:

He ramained in his room till late, and when he did show up to act as detective in the lobby, he would not talk, smoking his cigar furiously and listening to the others talking.

In spite of their defeat, the Griffmen showed surprising strength with the bat, and there is hope that they have found their batting eyes once more. This is particularly true of Laporte, who has obtained five hits in two days. He has hit for an average of 65 since arriving here. The weakness of the Naplanders seems to be in the box. Vean Gregg did not pitch long enough yesterday to show his condition, but the others were mediocre. Falkenberg and Gregg are about the only real pitchers on the team. It is a good hitting team, though, and this may carry it along for a while until the warm weather improves the pitching of all opponents.

Since their brilliant start of the present campaign, the Naplanders have waxed very proud, and are willing to wager hard dollars that they will defeat Walter Johnson tomorrow, indeed, some of them want to bet that the Big
